BEGINNING IMPRINTS

Our first college footprints begin with that initial step onto the campus that has become our new surroundings. From the first day of Prologue, we begin imprinting memories when we meet our new roommate, build teamwork on the ropes course, and enjoy a friendly game of volleyball. Prologue will always be remembered as a week of new experiences and the start of our first college footprints.

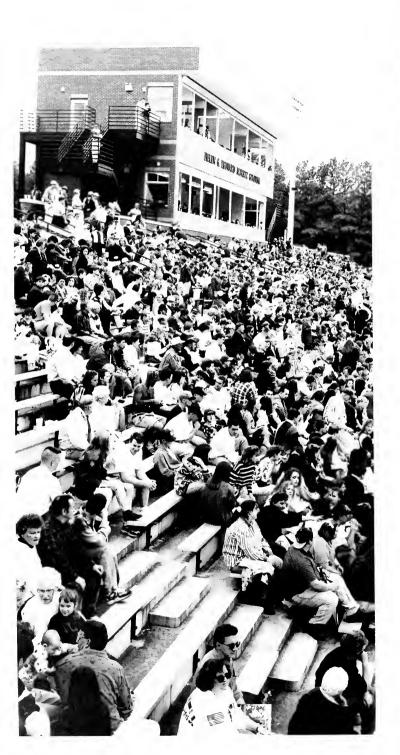

HOMECOMING IMPRINTS

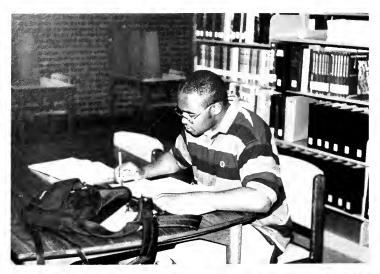

Most of life's paths lead us in different directions, but one set of footprints continue each year to lead to the same destination. No matter where our journey in life takes us, each year our footprints unite us and form one large bear claw that is Homecoming.

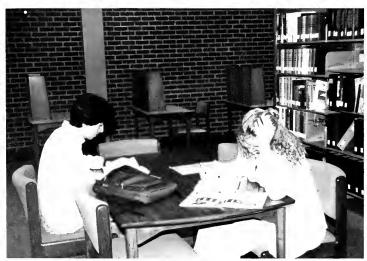

ENLIGHTENING IMPRINTS

During our college journey the most fulfilling footprints are taken while walking down the road of knowledge. By studying, learning, and teaching, we prepare ourselves with the necessary skills to make our future footprints.

INDIVIDUAL IMPRINTS

As we go through life interacting with many different people, occasionally it is important that we also have individual footprints. Achieving through our own self-motivation is what makes us different from others. To find life fulfilling each of us must make sure that some of our footprints are taken alone.

JOYOUS IMPRINTS Life's most memorable footprints are ones made in celebration. Our college years are filled with joyous imprints, like Homecoming, athletic victories, and rewarding events.

Superplayer Leonard Davis dances into the end zone for another TD in the Homecoming game with Newberry.

Inducted into the Sports Hall of Fame at Homecoming were (left to right) Hank McCrorie, Giles Setzer, and C.A. Frye.

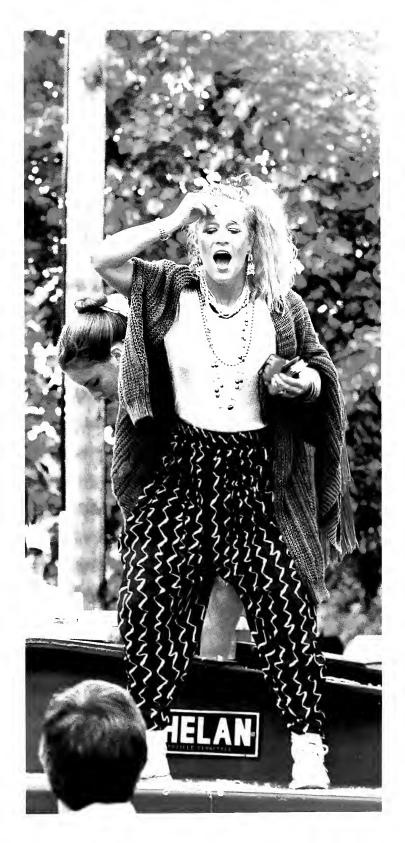

UNITING IMPRINTS

At times our footprints oring us together to focus on a common goal.

ENDING IMPRINTS

Your college footprints end as you walk down the aisle to receive that long-awaited degree. You realize that one segment of your educational goal is complete, but you have many new learning experiences still ahead, as you venture out into the world. Graduation ends the college imprints you make; but new, exciting, life-long imprints are just ahead.

DEDICATION

Life is a series of footsteps that take us on our journey. Each person we encounter along the way provides us with the insight toward making that next footprint.

The recipient of the 1995 dedication of the HACAWA has encouraged students to seek their full potential and to leave behind a footprint that will make a lasting impression.

Our recipient has served the college community for over 30 years. He personifies the professional and caring reputation that Lenoir-Rhyne expects from its faculty. Any student who speaks with him can immediately see his excitement and mastery of his subject.

He is a well-rounded individual whose work ethic and sense of loyalty for the institution mark him clearly one of our most dependable faculty members.

He has twice served as chairman of a Lenoir-Rhyne presidential inauguration. In 1980 he chaired the college's self-study for the Southern Association of Colleges.

The recipient of both the Bost Teaching Award and the Roediger Service Award, our recipient has been a member of major college committees, including the Executive Committee.

A graduate of Lenoir-Rhyne College and possessed with a strong sense of love and service for Alma Mater, his distinguished career has been characterized by devotion to church, love of teaching, and concern for the welfare of students.

Perhaps our recipient is best known for leading us through our final steps at graduation as the college marshal. He walks with us when we enter as seniors and he will walk with us when we take our final steps as graduates.

With great pride the 1995 HACAWA is dedicated to

WILLIAM H. SHUFORD

O.J. Simpson always lived life on camera, first as a football star, then as a sportscaster, commercial pitchman and acto But nothing could have prepared him, or his fans, for the role he would play in 1994.

Simpson was suspected in the brutal slashing murder of his ex-wife Nicole and her friend, Ronald Goldman. But it was harrest that proved unforgettable. Instead of turning himself in as promised, Simpson had a friend drive him on a ramblin jaunt along southern California's freeways. The police followed behind at a discrete distance, heeding a warning from Simpson's driver that O.J. had a gun.

Eventually O.J. surrendered himself and so began what many called the most famous murder case in American history

NEW ORGAN INSTALLED

One of the features of the Mauney Music Building is a new organ, which has been recently installed.

The organ, made possible by a donation from Thomas W. Reese of Hickory, will be the primary teaching organ for Lenoir-Rhyne music students. Custom-designed and crafted by Gabriel Kney and Company of London, Ontario, the instrument was installed over a period of days by Kney himself in the choral room of the music building (right).

Associate professor Larry Lowder stated, "We've dreamed of a new organ for about 20 years." Professor Lowder is shown at the organ keyboard below.

Lowder added that the new instrument is a tracker organ, which means it produces sound with mechanical rather than electric pneumatic action. Tracker organs are patterned after those of the 17th and 18th centuries, when most organ literature was written. Tracker instruments can authentically reproduce Baroque and later music designed for those instruments.

Lowder said the new organ, with 1,440 pipes in a red oak case, was designed and had been under construction for more than a year. Pipes are made of tin, white pine and/or mahogany.

Dr. Marilyn Keiser, concert organist and professor of music at Indiana University, was the featured performer at a recital to dedicate and inaugurate the new organ on April 9, 1994.

The Reese donation was made in the name of his mother, Myrtle Settlemyre Reese, who was organist at various Lutheran churches where her father was pastor. The Reese gift was made as part of LR's Centennial Renewal major gifts campaign.

CAMPUS LIFE

A REFLECTION OF PAST FOOTPRINTS

Each footprint we make is linked to our past footprints. As we journey through our college experience, we become more independent and begin to mold our character and personality to guide us in future endeavors. Campus life is an important aspect of our character-shaping. Through our interactions with friends we learn about others and ourselves.

As we watched our college footprints begin . . .

We felt a need to become involved . . .

No matter whether our footprints headed toward entertainment . . .

Or guided us to the peacefulness of the place we call home.

All of our footprints led us to the time of our lives . . .

And left us praying that our future footprints would be as memorable as the ones we left behind.

FOOTPRINTS TO REMEMBER

Ventriloquist Lynn Trefzger, who has performed on LIFETIME and MTV Comedy hours, gave a side-splitting performance for the LR community. With the help of her audience assistants, she kept students and faculty astonished with her vocal talents.

SPRING FLING

Spring fling was held in Moretz Stadium this year. Everyone enjoyed baseball, volley-ball, and jello fights. Thunks to Program Board and WLRC for providing the music. Spring Fling, '94 was a huge success.

One of the main events of Greek Week was a lip-sync contest. Although it was open to all Greeks, only the sororities participated. Each had their own individual "style" of performance.

typnotist Chuck Milligan amazed students with his act, sponsored by Program Board. Many students showed up to hear Salisbury ophomore Chandler Shaw tell them to "Quit pissing in the pool," after being told by Milligan that he was a lifeguard.

ther students slept through most of the performance when they were given the command to sleep. But not everyone on stage was asleep. a fact, one couple began showing affection when the hypnotist told them that the person beside them had an erotic scent.

ACADEMICS

THE PRESIDENT

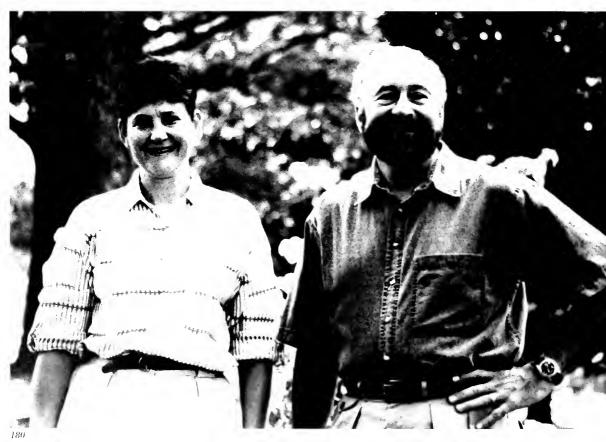

Dr. Ryan LaHurd, tenth president of Lenoir-Rhyne college, joined the college community in mid-July.

A graduate of the University of Wisconsin-Madison, Dr. Lallurd stated, "I think that the presidency is a calling, in that I believe God gives people talents, interests and abilities which can make contributions to the community."

Dr. LaHurd quickly became a part of the LR family. He not only is a well-read scholar, but he may also be found at athletic events and he recently attended classes to learn sign-language. He said. "I realized this was an important part of our community and I didn't want to be left out."

President LaHurd is shown at right at a television station in Charlotte, where he was a guest at a noon show in which he demonstrated some of his cooking skills. Below is President LaHurd with his wife, Dr. Carol Schertsen LaHurd, who is a member of the University of St. Thomas, St. Paul, Minn.

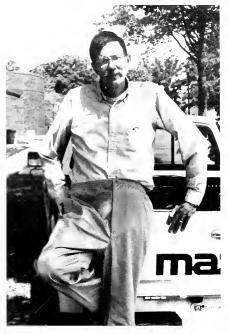

IN MEMORIAM

CELICE ESTABLISHED AT LR

As the landscape of the United States becomes more multicultural, institutions such as Lenoir-Rhyne must change to offer a product in step with the rest of the world.

To that end, LR has established the Center for English Language and International Culture Exchange (CELICE) to support international students as well as coordinate services and a cultural immersion for both the international students and for LR's more traditional population.

The program is directed by Dr. Marion Love shown at right with Russian instructors Larissa Kaminskaya and Marina Birjukova. Dr. Gabriele Weinberger will serve as director of volunteer services with Lynda Kirby serving as director of activities and scheduling. Dr. Berk Smith directs cross-cultural programming.

AIDS AWARENESS WEEK

ids Awareness Week began at Lenoir-Rhyne on January 30 with a convocaion led by Beatrice Kerr (below right), a 25-year old woman living with the ids virus. MTV personality Judd Winnick (right) spoke on February 3. I special guest during the week was Jeanne White (below left), mother of the ate Ryan White. Mrs. White founded the Ryan White foundation to promote inderstanding of aids.

R students (above) spent the week creating and distributing red ribbons to elp the campus become conscious of AIDS.

In Closing —
These Are The Footprints We Left Behind . .

. . And These Continuing Prints Lead Us Toward The Future.

We have left behind footprints — happy footprints, busy footprints — and now we are ready to assume different steps and with them, different footprints. But we shall always remember the steps we have taken here during four years — the steps we took as Bears, the footprints we leave behind with Alma Mater.

A college yearbook is a pictorial record of a year. It is a reminder of the people and places that have formed this academic year, the footsteps we have taken on our educational journey and the footprints we have left behind.

I would like to begin by thanking the two photographers who captured this year's footprints on film. Their time and talents have helped create a memorable book that each of us can cherish.

A special word of thanks to James Labrenz of Insight Photographic for the professional quality he provides each year. It has often been said by Josten's field representative, Bill Hall, that the HACAWA's color pictures and the quality they represent are outstanding. We have James Labrenz to thank for this and we do so with pleasure. James is a valuable part of the HACAWA family and we are most grateful for his friendship and his talent.

I would also want to thank David Thomas, a sophomore from Salisbury, N.C., who served as director of photography and provided most of the pictures in the campus life section. Without David's time and dedication, many of the Prologue and Student Government events would have not been included. Thank you, David, for all your help and support with this year's HACAWA.

The HACAWA also included pictures by Jeff Oberg (LENOIR-RHYNEAN), Dr. Russell Benton, Phil Robinson, Jeff Willhelm (Catawba Valley NEIGHBORS), Tammy Wilson, and Denise Smith.

Many thanks to Mrs. Dottie Crafton, our typist. Dottie is a valuable part of our yearbook team and we thank her for her interest and contributions. Also, we express our gratitude to Iris Moore of the Business Office who has provided assistance year-after-year. Her pleasant personality makes the paper work of the yearbook more bearable.

A special word of thanks to our Public Relations Office. Not only have they provided pictures but also press releases. A special "thank you" to Michaell Parker, PR secretary, for all her personal help.

We are deeply appreciative of the help provided by Tom Neff, sports information director at LR. Tom provided pictures and copy and showed a personal interest in the HACAWA. Our coverage of athletics at LR included much help from Tom.

A special word of thanks to Bill Hall and to Josten's for providing quality publishing service and helpful advice. Thanks to our in-plant adviser Jakkie Davis for all her help.

EDITOR'S PAGE

Thanks to Delmar Photography of Denver, N.C., who was our photographer for the class pictures. The association was a most pleasant one.

Thanks to Coaches John Hamilton and Tom Melville who assisted us in preparing the sports section and "many thanks" to Wade Wolgemuth and Kyle Wolf for all their help.

My sincere appreciation to Dr. Ellis Boatmon, who strives successfully to make each edition of the HACAWA a memorable one. Thank you for your guidance and support.

To my beloved parents: I love you. You have guided me to become the person I am today. Thank you for being my biggest supporters. You have followed my footsteps since they began and I hope that each footprint will make you proud.

Finally, congratulations to the graduating class of 1995. May your footsteps always lead you to your dreams and may your footprints be everlasting. I wish each and every one of you the very best that life has to offer.
